Senate Bill No. 4

This hereby establishes the Committee on Religious Life of Emory and Henry College Student Government and its duties.

Be it enacted by the Senate of Emory and Henry College,

Section 1.

(a) Purpose—The purpose of the Student Religious Life Committee of Emory and Henry College is designed to assist and guide each student in their personal growth, understanding, and relationship to God. It is our hope that students will be made acutely aware of their personal need for faith and will find that which is adequate to fill their spiritual needs. The Student Religious Life Committee serves in an advisory capacity to the Cabinet to fulfill the mission statement of the college, which states that, “We affirm the Christian faith as our spiritual and moral heritage and encourage all our members to grow in faith as they grow in knowledge. We believe in the worth of each person’s religious and cultural heritage, inasmuch as it leads to service to others in our region and the larger world.”

(b) Structure—The committee shall be composed of our representative from each of the following Student Government Organizations: Kerygma, Campus Christian Fellowship, Habitat for Humanity, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. In addition there will be three members at large, including one resident of a religious life house. From these seven members shall be elected a chairperson of the committee to report to the Cabinet. The consulting advisor shall be the Chaplain and Director of Religious Life at Emory and Henry College.

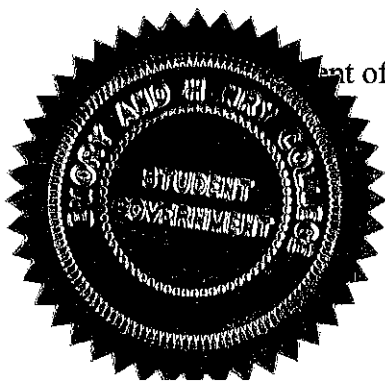

Section 2. Position of Student Religious Life Committee

(a) Appointment—All committee members shall be appointed by their respective organizations. Members at large shall be appointed by the existing committee members. All appointments shall be made in consultation with the Chaplain and Director of Religious Life at Emory and Henry College.

This hereby establishes the Department of Judicial and Honor Affairs of the Emory and Henry College Student Government and its duties.

Be it enacted by the Senate of Emory and Henry College,

Section I.

- A. Purpose – The Department of Judicial and Honor Affairs shall have two purposes:
1. The Department of Judicial and Honor Affairs shall serve to ensure the efficient and effective operation of the Honor Code of Emory and Henry College.
 2. The Department of Judicial and Honor Affairs shall serve to ensure the efficient and effective operation of the judicial system in cases of social disciplinary problems.
- B. Structure – The Department shall be composed of three students selected from the student body as well as advisors from the faculty. At least two of the three student members must be of junior or senior status.
1. The two advisors for the Honor Court shall be the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs as well as a faculty member of the History Department or the Social Sciences Department. The Department members shall be charged with the duty of upholding the integrity of the Honor Code.
 2. The advisor for all social disciplinary problems shall be the Dean of Students. The Department members shall be charged with the duty of upholding the integrity of the judicial system of Emory and Henry College.

Section II. Position of Judicial and Honor Affairs Department Member

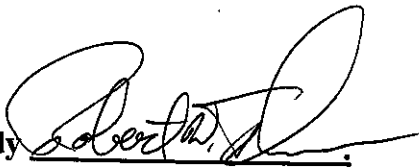

A. Appointment

1. All Department members shall be appointed by the President of the Student Government, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.
2. Department members shall report directly to the Student Government President.

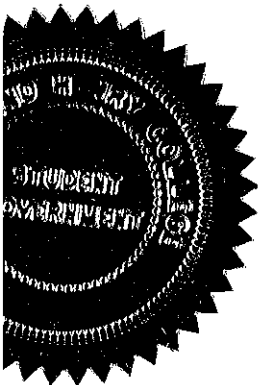

B. Duties

1. All Department members shall be charged with the duty of assisting in the education of the student body regarding the policies and provisions of the Honor Code and the judicial system.
2. All Department members shall be charged with the duty of compiling a list of potential student investigators from which the President shall select two students to investigate an alleged violation of the Honor Code. All Department members are also charged with the duty of compiling such a list from which the President will choose two students to investigate any social disciplinary problems.
3. In the event of an alleged Honor Code violation or social disciplinary problem, the Department members shall assume the duty of training the student investigators that have been appointed by the President. Such training shall include, but may not be limited to: a) the proper methods of gathering evidence; b) the evaluation of sources; c) the importance of confidentiality; and d) the proper means of compiling a report of all findings to be submitted to the appropriate advisor.
4. In the event of conflicting interests or other extenuating circumstances, the Department members may also serve as investigators of an alleged Honor Code violation or social disciplinary problem.
5. All Department members shall be responsible for assisting in the editing and proposing of revisions to the Honor Code to reflect any and all changes in the structure of the Student Government and the student body.
6. At least one Department member shall be designated to attend each cabinet meeting and prepare a report of the cabinet meeting to be presented to the other Department members. However, other Department members may also attend the cabinet meetings.

SENATE BILL NO. 6

Financial Code for Student Organizations

This code is the official statement on financial policy for all student organizations which fall under its stated jurisdiction.

Part I. Jurisdiction

The Financial Code shall apply to all organizations which are budgeted in whole or in part by funds from the Board of Trustees and distributed by the Student Government of Emory & Henry College. The chief administrative officer and the business manager(s) of each budgeted organization shall be responsible to the Student Government for the financial policies pursued by that organization.

Part II. The Student Body Treasurer and the Finance Committee

The Student Body Treasurer and the Assistant Treasurer shall be appointed by the Student Body President. The Finance Committee shall consist of the Student Body President, the Student Body Vice President, the Student Body Treasurer, the Assistant Treasurer, the Dean of Students, and two other students at large, one of whom must be a first year student, appointed by the Student Body Treasurer in consultation with the Student Body President. Together, the Student Body Treasurer, the Assistant Treasurer, and the Finance Committee shall prepare a budget each semester and shall review the financial status of budgeted organizations. The Finance Committee members shall serve for a term of one semester and shall meet primarily for the formulation of a proposed budget. Following completion of the budgetary process, they shall meet on an as needed basis as determined by the Student Body Treasurer. Finance Committee members may be reelected. The Student Body Treasurer shall serve the following functions:

- A. The observation of each budgeted organization and the presentation of regular reports to the Executive Branch concerning that organization's financial status. During periods of probation, or when so ordered by the Student Government, the Student Body Treasurer shall be present along with a representative of the organization at all contractual negotiations, and shall countersign all contracts, bills, and purchase orders.
- B. The collection of all monthly, term, and year-end reports required of budgeted organizations, their term budget requests (including Contingency Fund requests), and any and all documents necessary to a financial investigation or to fulfill report requirements.

C. The power to review and to recommend to the Student Government any action deemed necessary.

D. The power to enforce and to report regularly on the enforcement of any disciplinary action passed by the Student Government which relates to the financial status of budgeted organizations.

E. The organization of a meeting of the Finance Committee and the representatives of the budgeted organizations to be held at the beginning of each semester in order to review properly with them the Financial Code, and to explain the format for drawing up reports.

F. The presentation of reports to the Student Government in writing, at time intervals designated by the Student Body Treasurer, on the financial status of all budgeted organizations.

G. The presentation of written reports at all Senate meetings.

The Assistant Treasurer shall serve the following functions:

A. To act as a financial liaison between the Student Government and the Campus Activities Board.

B. To authorize all budgetary transactions.

C. To perform any other duties as assigned by the Student Body Treasurer.

Part III. Term, and Year-End Reports

A. The term financial report shall accompany the budget request for each succeeding semester and shall be presented to the Student Body Treasurer no later than the date set by the Student Government for the submission of budget requests. It shall contain an income statement and an expense account for the past semester and shall be presented to the Student Body Treasurer in triplicate.

B. The year-end report shall be presented to the Student Body Treasurer in triplicate no later than the second week of the fall semester of the succeeding academic year.

C. Reports of all types shall be presented to the Student Body Treasurer on standard ledger paper, written up in standard accounting form such that they include a detailed listing of all transactions within the period covered by the report, including all expenses, all revenues, the budget statement as of the report date, and a list of all outstanding debts owed by the to the organization.

D. When the person responsible for the financial report terminates his/her office, a full financial report is due.

Part IV. The Budget

All organizations expecting to request and/or receive funds from the Board of Trustees shall be required to present to the Student Body Treasurer and Finance Committee by a date specified by the Student Government their budget requests for the ensuing semester. The rules surrounding the budgeting procedure shall be reviewed at a meeting specified by the Student Body Treasurer during which budget request forms shall be acquired and at which a representative of each organizations expecting funds must be present. The budget request shall include the previous semester's financial report, a statement of the current semester's projected expenses, and the request note. These documents shall be presented in triplicate. The Student Body Treasurer and the Finance Committee shall review all requests for funds and draw up a formal allotment proposal which it will present to the Student Senate for approval. The Finance Committee shall be in attendance at this Student Senate session.

Part V. Financial Regulations and Penalties

- A. Financial responsibility shall include the following:
1. That the budgeted organizations and their business personnel keep accurate and current records of the past, present, and projected assets and liabilities of the organizations.
 2. A thorough and rational fiscal policy must be followed and all contractual obligations as agreed on in the Student Government sessions shall be carried out so that no deficit occurs unless so stipulated by the Student Government.
- B. Financial irresponsibility, which may result in the imposition of one or more penalties by the Student Government, includes the following acts:
1. Discrepancies in the balance totals of the semester report, the monthly Reports, and/or the year-end report, either comparatively or in relation to the account of the Student Body Treasurer and the College business office.
 2. Failure to present a report on time or at all; failure to follow the approved format or to submit required data for any investigation, routine or otherwise.
 3. Allocation of budgeted funds for purposes not revealed in the term proposal, or for any transaction which may jeopardize the successful fulfillment of contractual obligations of the organization as decided up on in the Student Senate budget session.
- C. Whenever an organization is accused by the Student Body Treasurer of committing an act of financial irresponsibility, its business personnel and its advisor shall show cause to the Student Body Treasurer as to why this act would not require action on the part of the Student Government and the Student Senate.

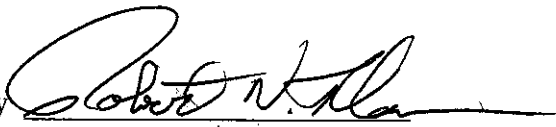

If the Student Body Treasurer feels an investigation or penalty action is warranted, it may recommend the following to the Student Government.

1. A further investigation by the Student Body Treasurer and simultaneous freezing of all existing or budgeted funds of the organizations in question until such investigation is completed to the satisfaction of the Student Government.
2. The immediate freezing of all existing funds of the organization in question until appropriate action can be taken, together with a request to the Student Government to order the temporary suspension of the organization's activity.
3. That a fine of not more than $5 per business day be imposed upon the organization in question until missing data or reports are supplied.
4. Recommending that a discrepancy or a deficit be made up with payment(s) from the next budget allotment of the organization in question.
5. Calling a special meeting of the Student Government, the Finance Committee, and the College's Chief fiscal officer or his/her representative, together with the business personnel of the organization in question, in order to work out an appropriate penalty for special cases as deemed advisable by the Student Government.
6. In case of recurring breaches or extraordinary circumstances, the Student Government can undertake an investigation to determine whether or not to suspend the organization in question indefinitely, and/or to suspend any of its personnel or officers from the performance of their duties.

D. Where appropriate, the Student Body Treasurer can enforce a combination of penalties. The Student Government may change the penalties stated in this code and may penalize other unstated acts of financial irresponsibility only through proper legislative action.

E. During periods when funds are frozen, the Student Body Treasurer shall authorize the advisor of the organization in question to act in lieu of its business personnel in the settlement of outstanding debts, in which case the Student Body Treasurer shall inform the College business office of such an authorization.
